Foreword

With the passing of time, the echoes of our college life will grow fainter and fainter, and then fade away. Gone forever will be the routine of college life, the fun and fellowship we had, the serious moments we shared, and the dreams we built. It is the hope of the 1956 Seer Staff that, as you glance through this book in the years to come, you will recapture those moments—and the echoes will begin again.

Dedication

Although he has been with us only a year, we have come to love our President dearly. A leader of our school situated here in the heart of the Deep South, President Compere epitomizes all the desirable qualities of a Southern gentleman. Along with these qualities he has admirably blended the higher qualities of a Christian gentleman.

Because of
His friendly heart-warming smile,
His dignified manner in presiding,
His untiring efforts to promote friendship on the campus,
His high hopes and aspiration for each student,

His dreams of the future for Clarke Memorial College, His vision for its possibilities in the future,

We, the 1956 Seer Staff, proudly dedicate this volume to our "President," William Lowrey Compere.

Our President

It is good to share with Christian young people their dreams and noble purposes; to watch them in their search for truth as they develop keen minds and great souls. It is good to see them look on life as a stewardship, recognizing its abilities and opportunities as a trust from God. I feel a deep sense of satisfaction in facing with you the future He has for you.

SHELBY SCOTT

Religious Education in its deepest sense means instruction in the beliefs of a particular religion. Primarily, Religious Education today is carried on by the various Christian faiths, and is the work of the church. However, in recent years it has been expanded and incorporated into the curriculum of most denominational schools.

Its main purpose is to acquaint its members in, and with the field of religious education.
